Dr. Biswajit Biswas, Principal of the college delivered a speech and elaborated on the significance and role of Electoral Literacy Club in the college. He also narrated the importance of voting right. He urged up all the eligible students who have not registered their names in the voter list to register the same immediately as they would be able to exercise their voting right. He further opined that the youths of the country should play a vital role in order to make our democracy a vibrant one. The principal hoped that this Electoral

Literacy Club would discharge effective role in enlisting the new voters and creating mass awareness among the youths in general and students in particular.

Sri Kulen Das, Assistant Professor in Political Science put emphasis on the new voters and their role in strengthening the democratic right and values of our country. He urged upon the students who have not yet registered their names in the voter list to visit the college to attend the voters Registration Camp to be organized by the Sub-Divisional Administration, Bilasipara for registration. As a nodal officer he vowed to do his best to enlist the new eligible voters to be incorporated in the voter list.

Sri Atikur Rahman, Asstt. Professor, Deptt. of English read out the minutes of the meeting at the end. He also offered vote of thanks to all present in the meeting and special thanks and gratitude was offered to Sri Roushin Ul Alom, ACS, Election Officer, Bilasipara Election District for his active presence and kind guidance in the formation of the Electoral Literacy Club. He diligently informed the students and staff members about the role and significance of Electoral Literacy Club in the Educational Institution.
