

Report on National Seminar on Non-formal Education, Library Legislation, and Society

Venue: Bilasipara College Campus

Date: 24th – 25th October 2019

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Bilasipara College, in association with the Assam College Librarians' Association, organized a National Seminar on Non-formal Education, Library Legislation, and Society on 24th and 25th October 2019. The event was conducted in collaboration with the Indian Ethno Library Society and the Bilasipara Sub-divisional Public Library.

The seminar aimed to discuss the significance of non-formal education and library legislation in shaping an inclusive society. Scholars, academicians, librarians, and students from various institutions participated in the event, presenting research papers and engaging in meaningful discussions on the role of libraries in education and policymaking.

The inaugural session was graced by eminent speakers, including renowned educationists, policymakers, and library science experts. Keynote addresses emphasized the importance of accessible education and the necessity of strong library legislation to ensure the proper functioning of knowledge institutions.

Throughout the two-day seminar, interactive sessions, paper presentations, and panel discussions covered various topics, such as:

- The role of non-formal education in skill development.
- The impact of library laws on the educational framework.
- The evolution of public libraries in the digital era.
- The contribution of libraries to social transformation.

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks from the organizers, acknowledging the support of all participants and collaborators. The event was highly successful in promoting academic exchange and policy awareness, leaving a lasting impact on attendees.
